The language of water

HYDROGLYPHS

What is a hydroglyph? The simplified version is that they are symbols in ice that have one or more meanings.

I derive these meanings by using words as my way of communicating prior to freezing. I'm essentially inviting water to show me a symbol for each presented word. For example I might write, 'Creation', on a piece of paper, place my petri dish of water on top of it for 30 seconds, remove and then freeze using my technique. (Which can be accessed from my website) Lastly, I photograph the crystallography on my iPhone and record any patterns of interest.

To say I have discovered one hydroglyph, I need to have seen the same image appear after using the same written word at least fifty times. This tells me that it is not coincidental, and that there is enough evidence to say it has a specific meaning.

Essentially, I am learning to understand messages in water that are revealed in frozen symbology. This liquid crystal language is not as simple as ABC. Hydroglyphs are very conceptually complex, inviting us to dive deeper into meaning, connection and the subtle realms of consciousness. The glass petri dishes I use for this work, are like water's temporary templates of patterning and information. I think of them like mini worlds of connection to the unseen forces, allowing water to literally speak for itself.

Rudolph Steiner said, "No one can design and create a world that was not already designed and formed out of thoughts. He says, "The human being thinks that he creates intelligence, whereas he only draws intelligence from the universal sea of intelligence."

Each hydroglyph has an interesting back story as to why I chose its specific word influence. At some stage I'll add all the stories into this study. As you go through the glyphs, you'll see I've added potential meanings. This means that I've seen the related symbol show up a few times using these words, but haven't repeated it enough times to definitively say it is a layered meaning. I've also given each hydroglyph a comparison to something in Nature.

Because I keep finding new glyphs and making new discoveries, this is a work in constant progress which I update as often as I can. The Hydroglyphs presented in this PDF have taken me nearly four years to discover and decode. It is a very lengthy process to do so many repeated tests, especially when each glyph has multiple layers of meaning. Even after all this time, I still feel like an infant amongst Gods. The sophistication of the language I've seen so far is absolutely extraordinary.

READING MULTIPLE GLYPHS

When there are multiple hydroglyphs the largest glyph seems to be a response to the question in the forefront of the mind, the smallest glyph tends to more of a supporting message.

If there are more than one of the same glyph, it usually indicates an amount, For example, two of something is double, three of something is threefold.

If a glyph sits inside another, it indicates that the two are closely inter-connected. The same goes for if two glyphs are touching. The more glyphs the more sophisticated the meaning,

Reading multiple glyphs

- Fern hexagon: Living/Death/Healthy/
Gratitude/Received with Gratitude (x1)
- Heart: Love/Heart/Affection (x1)

I invited water to share a spiritual message with me.
Possible meaning: Love lives in gratitude

Reading multiple glyphs

- Electrical Charge: Electrical Charge/Static/Salt (x4)
- Free Energy: Free Energy/Energy/Emanate (x2)

I invited water to share a message about free energy prior to freezing. Possible meaning: Free energy doubles the electrical charge by four.

Reading multiple glyphs

- Lotus: Enlightenment/Purity/Kind/Lotus/Enlightened (x1)
- Empty Star: Dream/Idea/Inspiration/Star/Thinking (x3)
- Rise up: Rise up/Make a stand/Elevate (x1)

I invited water to share a message with me using glyphs.
Possible meaning: Pure dreams and inspirations elevate you towards enlightenment.

Reading multiple glyphs

- Fern Hexagon: Living/Death/Healthy/Gratitude/Received with Gratitude (x 3)
- Dagger: Dagger/Knife/Physical Pain/Emotional Pain/Danger/Hurt/Stab ( x 1)
- Message Glyph: Message/Communicate/Remember (x 1)
- Lotus:Enlightenment/Purity/Enlightened/Kind/Lotus (x1)

I was going through a hard time emotionally, and I invited water to give me some spiritual advice. Possible meaning: Emotional pain can hurt. Communicate with gratitude, stay healthy and live kindly.

Reading multiple glyphs

- Stress: Stress/Anxiety/ Defensive/Protective (x 1)
- Pharmaceutical: Pharmaceutical/Poison (x 2)
- EmptyStar:DreamDream/Idea/
Inspiration/Thinking/Star (x 2)

I froze this water immediately after having had a conversation with a friend, who was sharing that she was worried about getting a second vaccine. Her energy was still in my awareness. Possible meaning: Stress thinking about pharmaceuticals (maybe 2nd vaccine because there are 2 pharmaceutical glyphs)

Reading multiple glyphs

- Fern Hexagon: Living/Death/Healthy/
Gratitude/Received with Gratitude (2)
- Message Glyph: Message/Communication/
Remember (x 2)

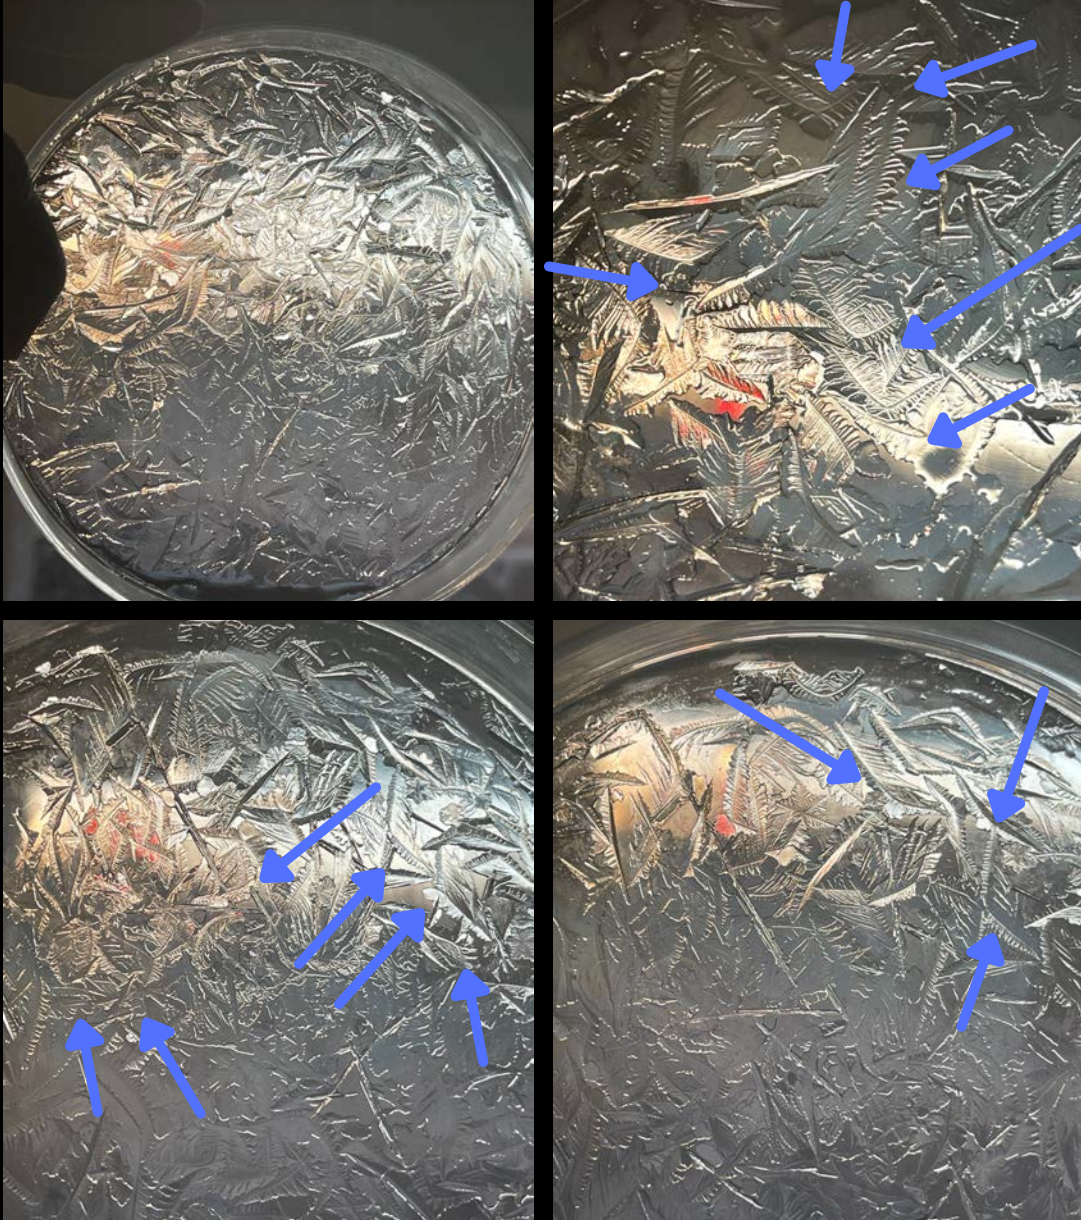

Myself and another friend sent love to the water prior to freezing. Possible meaning: Two messages of gratitude were both received with gratitude.

Reading multiple glyphs

- Sarah's Tiara: Sacred/Special (1)
- Message Glyph: Message/Communication/
Remember (multiple)

I asked the water to share a message glyph with me. It showed me more message glyphs than I've ever seen! Possible meaning: There are many messages for you.

This work with water is definitely in its infancy. There is much more to know. I often feel like I'm only just scratching the surface of an uncharted new world. I have many philosophical notions, and am working as scientifically as possible by doing repeated studies and openly sharing my technique. At this stage, the significance of this work, at least scientifically, is in its repeatability. The difficult part is that it can be subjective to one's conscious connection with water, not to mention, water's 'free conscious expression.'

I'm fortunate enough to be working with a couple of people who are observing and photographing hydroglyphs frozen out in 'Nature's Freezer'. They live in areas of the US where it is cold enough to watch the water literally freeze before their eyes. This removes any possibility that the household freezer is somehow involved in the design process. Spiritually, this method of crystallography offers self discovery in every petri dish. I don't think one can do this work, and not be amazed at how incredible water is, how informative, how insightful and how beautiful is it.

The large body of work shared here, allows the viewer to objectively decide for themselves what significance it has.

I think it is important to look at the balancing medium that sits between both spiritual inquiry and scientific inquiry, and that is art. I can't definitively say that water is a source of consciousness, nor can I explain how it appears to be responding intelligently, but what I can say, is that the invisible is made visible through these crystallographic techniques.

"The day Science begins to study non-physical phenomena, it will make more progress in one decade, than in all previous centuries of its existence." - Nikola Tesla
